

Wondrous weave

The latest collection of accessories from Escada continues to dazzle. Along with the must-have Escada ballet flats in radiant gold with buckle detail, we are in love with the stunning folk weave of the Margaretha handbag – Escada’s signature this season. Available in gorgeous sorbet colours or folk floral print. Visit www.escada.com.

Touring in style

Have you heard of the new concept of “chictourism”? The latest fashion buzz is all about boutique shopping tours that take you away from the malls and into the crème de la crème of designer boutiques. Discover the hidden favourite boutiques of Cindy Crawford, Mischa Barton and Nicole Richie. Prices range from $95-$520pp for a luxury chauffeured experience. Visit www.chicinthecity.com.au.

Light therapy

Swarovski has turned to urban effervescence for its latest collection of jewellery and accessories. “Avenues of Light” is characterised by an extreme graphic style of incisive, dynamic lines. Pieces include the “Especially” cuff, and the “Evanescent” rings and pendants containing a transparent faceted crystal. www.swarovski.com.

Deceptive denim

Two breakthroughs in denim-design will help emphasise and flatten your lower half. Tummy Tuck Jeans has launched a collection to flatten the tummy, lift your butt and allow you to wear jeans up to two sizes smaller. Sweet Cheeks by Milk and Honey are a new range of jeans worked into two fits – “A Fit” (boyish butts) and “B Fit” (bootylicious, bouncy bums). Visit www.tummytuckjeans.com.au and www.ilovemilkandhoney.com.au.

Walker says hi to Myer

She’s a New Zealand native designer who has become an international fashion powerhouse. Karen Walker’s garments have graced celebrities including Sienna Miller, Claire Danes and Jennifer Lopez. She’s launched an exclusive diffusion line, “HI THERE from Karen Walker”, with Myer. All styles have the unmistakable Karen Walker imprint, and the first collection (in stores now) features 1940s-influenced dresses with geometric prints. Prices start at $79.95 for basic knitwear pieces. HI THERE from Karen Walker is exclusive to Myer.
